Bills

Representative Hager offered the following:

Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 125 and 126, insert:

(3) No claim bill shall be filed for introduction except upon majority approval at a public meeting of the delegation of legislators which serve the county or district in which the affected political subdivision is located. If only two legislators represent the county or district in which the political subdivision is located, then they shall select an agreed upon third legislator as a temporary member of the legislative delegation who shall be empowered to vote on whether to approve the claim bill for filing and introduction.
